(b) Proposed Revised Form.

B.—Statement of the production of coffee in ending 30th June during the year

District.	Village.	Number of plantations on 30th June.	Planted area as in previous year's statement.	New area placed under coffee (including replanting in areas abandoned in previous year).	Coffee cultivation abandoned during the year	Total area under coffee.	Area that has been plucked during the year.	Area that has not been plucked during the year.	Persons employed (daily average).		Quantity (in bushels) of coffee.
									Permanent.	Temporary.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
			ACRES	ACRES.	ACRES	ACRES.	ACRES.	ACRES.			Cherry-dried.	Parchment.

Columns 4—7.—The sum of columns 4 and 5 minus column 6 should equal the total in column 7.

Columns 8—9.—The sum of these two columns should be equal to the total in column 7.

Column 11.—The number of persons employed for any period less than a year should be multiplied by the number of days in that period and the total divided by 365. The result should be entered in this column. For example, if an estate employed 30 persons for 90 days, 40 for 60 days, and 100 for 45 days—

$$30 \times 90 = 2,700$$
$$40 \times 60 = 2,400$$

The total 6,600 divided by 365 gives 18 in round numbers, which is the figure to be entered in this column.

Column 12.—The figures in this column are not intended to represent the same coffee in two stages (as in the analogy of rice and paddy), but the actual quantity produced, whether it be in the form of cherry-dried or parchment coffee at the time of report.

NOTE.—(a) Explanations of noticeable variations in the figures of the year compared with the previous year together with any information regarding the character of the season and crop, trade and other points of interest connected with the condition and prospects of the industry, should be furnished.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

CUSTOMS.

Simla, the 1*st September* 1909.

No. 6467-96.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (VIII of 1878), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to prohibit the bringing by sea or by land, into British India, of any copy of the magazine entitled Swaraj: The Indian Nationalist.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE IN INDIA.

Simla, the 25*th August* 1909.

The following Prospectus of the Pusa Agricultural College and Central Research Institute sanctioned by the Government of India, is published for general information.

THE PUSA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE AND CENTRAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE.

PROSPECTUS.

(The prospectus is subject to such alterations as may from time to time be ordered).

1. Prefatory.

The Pusa Agricultural College and Central Research Institute owes its inception to the generosity of Mr. Henry Phipps, who in 1903 placed at the disposal of Lord Curzon, then Viceroy and Governor General of India, a donation of £20,000, which he afterwards raised to £30,000) with the request that it might be devoted to some object of public utility in India, preferably in the direction of scientific research. Part of this donation was devoted to the construction of a Pasteur Institute at Coonoor in Southern India, and it was decided that the balance should be utilized in erecting a laboratory of agricultural research which it was hoped would form a centre of economic science in connection with that occupation on which the people of India mainly depend. This conception was subsequently enlarged, and the Government of India have now constructed a College and Research Institute to which a farm of some 1,300 acres is attached for purposes of experimental cultivation and demonstration.

In 1903, when the Research Station was sanctioned, it was intended to combine it with a College which should give a general agricultural education and should serve as a model for the few Agricultural Colleges and Schools of very unequal merit which then existed in India. Recently, however, this conception of the functions of the Pusa College has undergone a material change. It is now recognised that the first and most essential condition of any permanent improvement in the agricultural methods of this country is the widest possible diffusion of an organized knowledge of scientific and practical agriculture, and at the same time it is desired to make the country as far as possible self-supporting in the matter of development of agricultural training and research. A comprehensive scheme for the promotion of agricultural education throughout India has accordingly been drawn up, as the result of which it is hoped that every important province will soon be provided with a fully equipped College where students will for three years receive practical and scientific education in agriculture. The position which the Pusa College is intended to occupy in relation to this general scheme is that of a higher teaching institution. Its main object is to enable students who have passed with distinction through a course of a Provincial College, by means of a post-graduate course in one of the specialised branches of agricultural science to qualify for the higher branches of agricultural work.

2. The Pusa Estate.

The estate consists of 1,300 acres, of which 900 are arable, 400 are pasture; nearly all the field crops of the plains can be grown there. The farm buildings are up-to-date and herds of breeding and milch cattle are maintained. There are complete arrangements for the manufacture of indigo and the curing of tobacco. Poultry breeding is being carried on, there is a large and well laid out orchard and Botanical Garden. Every facility for the practical teaching of agriculture and agricultural subjects has been provided. The students' laboratories are extensive, well lighted and equipped; there is a library for the use of students. The students' hostel is complete, and there is ample accommodation for 70 students. Wazir, on the Bengal and North-Western Railway, is the nearest railway station. It is six miles from the College by a good road. There is a telegraph and post office within the estate.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

PROSPECTUS.

(SECOND EDITION) SUBJECT TO AMENDMENT.

THE INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION OF THE PUNJAB, NORTH-WEST FRONTIER PROVINCE AND KASHMIR, 1909.

The Indian Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition will be held this year at Lahore, in the month of November.

The Indian Industrial Exhibitions held since 1901 have served greatly to popularise and encourage the Indian arts and industries, and their usefulness has been recognised by all sections of the Press and the public.

The first of these exhibitions was organised and held at Calcutta in December 1901, and similar exhibitions have since been held at Ahmedabad in 1902, at Madras in 1903, at Bombay in 1904, at Benares in 1905, at Calcutta in 1906, and Nagpur in 1907–1908.

The management and organisation of the exhibition have, since its inception, been entrusted to Committees fully representative of all sections of the public. The same practice has been followed in the Punjab, and a Committee which is fully representative of all classes, officials as well as non-officials, Europeans, Hindus, Sikhs and Muhammadans has been appointed. An Executive Committee has also been formed to carry out, under the general supervision of the General Committee, the various arrangements connected with the exhibition. Both these Committees have power to add to their number. The Executive Committee has appointed Sub-Committees to look after the several branches into which the work connected with the exhibition has been divided.

The Government of the Punjab, fully recognising the industrial and educational value of such exhibitions, has very kindly agreed not only to give special facilities for the exhibition of all such articles by its Agricultural, Art, Forest, Sanitary and other Departments as may prove useful or instructive to the public, but also to help in several other ways the organisation of the exhibition. His Honour Sir Louis Dane, whose keen interest to promote the industrial and agricultural development of the country is well known, and who as Resident in Kashmir substantially furthered the development of the material resources of that State, has been pleased to become a patron of the exhibition. The Hon'ble Sir George Ross-Keppel has also been pleased to become a patron and has extended the help and co-operation of his administration to the scheme.

The last exhibition held in the Punjab was in 1903. It was, however, confined to the products of industrial arts and manufactures belonging to the Punjab, and did not include agriculture and agricultural machinery. Of the exhibition now to be held the agricultural section is intended to form one of the most prominent branches. The agricultural possibilities of this province are immense, and during the past five years the Government Department of Agriculture has done a good deal to improve agriculture on scientific lines, by making available a considerable amount of instructive and useful information regarding seeds, the diseases of crops, various kinds of manures, and the use of modern implements and machinery for economising labour and increasing production. In the development of commerce and industry, Punjab has advanced with rapid strides during the past 18 years. The capital invested in industrial, banking and other commercial concerns that have come into existence in the Punjab during this period amounts to several crores of rupees.

Although the scope of the exhibition is confined largely to articles of indigenous growth and manufacture, arrangements are being made for the exhibition of machinery and appliances of foreign manufacture which are likely to help and develop Indian industries.

Facilities will be afforded to the exhibitors to keep stocks of their exhibits for ready sale

Copies of the Rules and Regulations relating to the Exhibition and of a synopsis of classification of exhibits are attached.

The Committee feel that an undertaking of this nature can only succeed with the active co-operation of all sections of the people, and they hope that all will join hands to make the Exhibition a success and in every way worthy of the Punjab and its Capital. The Committee confidently appeal to the Princes, noblemen and gentlemen of the Province, to the District and Tehsil authorities, to the District and Municipal Boards and to public Associations of all kinds, Anjumans, Sabhas and Samajes, and all who have the interests of the country at heart and are willing to assist in the development of its material resources for assistance and co-operation in bringing their labours to a happy and successful issue.

Assistance can be rendered to the objects of the Exhibition, among others, in the following ways; First, by actually furnishing articles for exhibition either on loan or for sale, Second, by subscriptions towards the funds of the Exhibition for specific purposes or to meet general expenses; Third, by giving inducement and encouragement to skilful craftsmen on appropriate conditions in order to enable them to prepare objects for exhibition or by giving prizes, Fourth, by display of general interest in the objects of the Exhibition by spreading information, by encouraging clerks but obscure or diffident workmen, and generally by co-operating in every possible way with the efforts made by the General and the Executive Committees. The Committee can not imagine a single patriotic Indian who takes an intelligent interest in the welfare of the country who cannot further the objects of the Exhibition in some way or other.

All communications should be addressed to the General Secretary, Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition, of the Punjab, N.-W. F. Province and Kashmir, Bharat Buildings, Lahore.

Complete lists of Patrons, Vice-Patrons, Presidents, Vice-Presidents, the General and the Executive Committees, Secretaries, etc., will be given in the next edition.

8. The Exhibition Authorities will inform the applicants whether they are registered as Exhibitors and will state the number allotted to them.

12. Exhibits will be received, from the 1st of October 1909, to the 15th of November 1909. No refund also will be given for occupying less space than that applied and paid for and allotted, and the unoccupied space will be disposed of as the Exhibition Authorities deem fit.

15. Every reasonable facility will be afforded to the Exhibitors or their agents in connection with the transport, display, sale and care of their Exhibits.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Lights in the River Mandovy, Mormugao Harbour and District of Dio.

From the 1st September 1909 the beacons "Tejo", "Reis Magos", "Campal" and "Malim" which point out the direction of the entrance to the river Mandovy, and those of the "Forte do mar", "Cantara" and "Sumber" of the district of Dio, shall be again lighted.

The beacons "Campal" and "Malim" referred to in the notice of the 20th August 1908 have been replaced by two others placed in the position of the former, made of an iron framework on which the lantern stands. Under this framework is the house for the watcher.

The walls and the roof of this house, the dome of the lantern and the verandah round it are painted white.

The light is red and fixed.

The lighting apparatus of the beacons "Reis Magos", "Agoada", which lies at the foot of the hill of the same name and near the sea, "Chicalim" and "San Jacinto" which point out the direction of the entrance to the Mormugao Harbour, have been replaced by others of fixed white light as the former, but of greater intensity.

A warning is hereby given that the towers of the old beacons at "Gaspar Dias" and "Alta da Conceicao", which pointed out the direction of the channel of the Mandovy bar, have not been yet removed and no notice shall be taken of them for this purpose.

Bill No. 9 of 1909.—The Indian Museum Bill, with Statement of Objects and Reasons	337
Proceedings of the Council of the Governor General of India assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 10th September 1909	341

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Bills introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for making Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 23.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to give legal sanction to a marriage ceremony common among the Sikhs called Anand was presented to the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 10th September 1909:

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to give legal sanction to a marriage ceremony common among the Sikhs called Anand was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the appendix, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto

2. We have altered the form of the preamble which, as it stood in the Bill as introduced, might have been interpreted as implying that legislation was necessary in order to make Anand marriages legal.

3. Clause 2 has been re-cast by us so as to make it cover Anand marriages already solemnized as well as those which may be solemnized hereafter, in order to prevent any doubts being raised as to the validity of such marriages in the past. We have also omitted the reference to remarriages which seemed to us unnecessary, as the word "marriage" includes remarriage also.

4. Sub-clause (c) of clause 3 has been inserted by us in order to meet a criticism passed on the Bill as introduced that it might be read as validating the Anand form of marriage in the case of persons who were not Sikhs.

5. Clause 4 is new and has been added, in accordance with a suggestion of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, in order to make it clear that there is no intention to make the form of marriage which the Bill proposes to validate an obligatory one.

6. Clause 5 provides for the point dealt with in sub-clause (b) of clause 3 of the Bill as introduced in a more convenient form.

7. The publication ordered by the Council has been made as follows:—

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. The principal object of this Bill is to alter the constitution of the Board of Trustees of the Indian Museum in order to assign to the chief executive officers of the Museum a position on the Trust. There are also various other amendments in the existing law as contained in the Indian Museum Acts, 1876 and 1887, which appear to be desirable, and in these circumstances it has been thought most convenient to repeal these two enactments and substitute a new Act consolidating their provisions with the necessary amendments. With this object the present Bill has been prepared.

2. The more important amendments of the existing law are explained in the subjoined Notes on Clauses.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 2.—It is proposed, after due consideration of the interests affected, to reduce the number of Trustees, which was fixed by the Indian Museum Act, 1887, at 21, to 17. Of these six are to be appointed ex officio, five by virtue of their position as Superintendents of departments of the Museum. The sixth is the Accountant-General of Bengal. The remaining Trustees are to be nominated by the various bodies interested in the proper management of the Museum. It is further proposed [sub-clause (3)] that nominated Trustees shall hold office for a period of three years only, but that the nominating authority be given the option of extending the period.

Clause 3.—To lessen the possibility of the combined votes of the official members out-numbering those of the unofficial members, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business has been raised from three to six.

Clause 6.—The opportunity has been taken to define more accurately the position and powers of the Trustees in respect of all the property, whether moveable or immoveable, now held or hereafter to be acquired by them for the purposes of the Trust.

Clause 7.—In order to promote efficiency, it is intended that the officers in charge of certain sections of the Museum should have more votes than at present in the management of their own sections. This will be effected by means of bye-laws for the management of the Museum to be made by the Trustees with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council.

Clause 9.—Power has been conferred on the Trustees to present duplicates to other Museums in British India as well as to exchange or sell them.

The Schedule.—A revised Schedule, specifying the lands and buildings of which the Trustees are now to have the exclusive possession, occupation and control for the purposes of their trust, has been substituted for the old one appended to the Indian Museum Act, 1887.

INDIAN MUSEUM BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. HARVEY said:—"My Lord, in asking permission to introduce the Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to the Indian Museum, I think that a brief explanation of the principle embodied therein and of the reasons why this legislation is being undertaken may be of interest to the Council. In 1904 the Government of India made a grant of five lakhs of rupees in furtherance of a scheme for the structural improvement of the Museum and for the re-arrangement of its exhibits. Simultaneously with the scheme for the enlargement of the Museum the Trustees had naturally to take into consideration the question of the organisation necessary for its administration. The defects of the existing system had, indeed, come more than once under the notice of the Trustees. The organisation, as it then stood, and as it now stands, is the result of compromises and expedients. The Museum includes Geological, Zoological, Archæological, Anthropological, Industrial and Art collections. The Geological collections, almost all of which are the property of the Geological Survey, are controlled by the Director of the Survey and not by the Trustees. Of the remainder, some are held in trust on behalf of the Asiatic Society, others belong to the Government of India or to the Government of Bengal: all are, however, administered directly by the Trustees through the Superintendents in charge of the Natural History section and of the Industrial section, each of whom is also a Secretary to the Trustees for his respective section. Moreover, the scientific grouping of the collections is defective, part of the Anthropological collections are, for instance, in the Natural History section, and part in the Industrial section. Finally, though the Director, Geological Survey, has in practice been a Trustee, the Superintendent of the Natural History section has no seat on the Board. The result of the defects in the existing system, the most prominent of which only I have noticed, was that the machinery of administration did not work without considerable friction.

"The Bill now before Council presents a scheme which has been drawn up by Government in consultation with the Trustees, and as its main features have been summarised in the Statement of Objects and Reasons, I need not detain Honourable Members with a lengthy explanation of its details. I will however point out that it has received the unanimous support of the Trustees, and is intended to secure that the Museum shall be in a position thoroughly to carry out its work of research without losing its character as an educative institution for the benefit of the general public. With this object in view it is an integral part of the scheme to group the sections representing the different sciences under experts, each of whom is to be given a free hand in the development of the particular subject with which his section is concerned. At the same time uniformity of management throughout the institution will be secured by the powers of inspection and general control vested in the Trustees.

"This scheme appears to give every prospect of improvement in the general work of administration whilst maintaining the scientific efficiency of each section of the Museum. Legislative action is necessary to carry it into effect, since it involves the handing over by the Trustees to the head of each section, as an indefinite loan, of the exhibits which have been held in trust by them on behalf of the Government of India and the Asiatic Society. An amendment of the Act is also necessary to alter the constitution of the Trust since it is intended that the head of each section should have a seat on the Board, the absence from the present law of such a provision having, as I have already pointed out, resulted in not inconsiderable friction. At the same time, in view of the difficulties experienced in the past as a result of the unwieldy character of the Board, we have reduced the number of Trustees to 17, and we provide in the new constitution of the Board for the representation of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the British Indian Association and the Calcutta University as well as of the Asiatic Society. The representation of the Government of Bengal, which has a large interest in the Museum is effected by giving that Government the nomination of three Trustees, in addition to the Principal, School of Art, and the Accountant-General, Bengal; and finally the Trustees will have the power to co-opt three members.

"My Lord, I move for leave to introduce the Bill."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. Harvey introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble Mr. Harvey moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in English in the Gazette of India, and the Calcutta Gazette.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned to Friday, the 8th October 1909.
